Re: Representation Commitment

The undersigned client acknowledges and agrees as follows:

During the representation period, the above student representatives will have the right to use the client's projects, creative materials, career portfolio, social media platforms, and any related materials to share with their class and potential business partners outside of SU, such as real-life talent agencies/management companies. Representatives will also build upon the creative, social, production, and marketing aspects of the client's project or career by creating or pitching new materials to share with the talent, their class, and other partners outside of SU, as stated above. Any creative projects or ideas from client that representatives want to work on must receive prior permission from client.

Goals for Semester:

- Create social media calendar
- Record/rollout 3 singles
- Perform a local show once a month
- Network with management/agencies in Austin
- Create an engaging docuseries on production of a song
- Connect with Thomas O'Brien and other members of the Creator Economy
- Build social following with consistent content
